

David's Worship, Part 2

Psalm 25

October 25, 2009

David was a worshiper and he was overwhelmed with the praiseworthiness of God. But this does not preclude suffering, trouble and distress in David's life. His life was like ours. Be sure that David knows plenty about suffering but it did not keep him from worshiping while waiting for the Lord.

1. Read Psalm 25 and reflect on what the summary says. What was David feeling like?
Psalm 25:16-19

2. A. To whom was David placing his trust? What does he ask for? What was the results of his trust?
Psalm 25:1-3

- B. What is the truth presented in verse 3?
Psalm 25:3, 5, 21

- C. What are the results of waiting for the Lord?
Isaiah 40:27-31

3. A. We need to learn to worship in times of trouble while we wait for the Lord. God is honored when we wait for Lord. What does it mean to wait on the Lord?
Psalm 25:1-2, 20, Matthew 11:28-30, Proverbs 3:5-6, Hebrews 12:1-2

B. Put all your eggs in one basket. Good advise when it comes to the trusting in the Lord. Trusting in Him has results. What truths support the results of trusting in Jesus?
Psalm 25:3, 10, 12-15

C. What can be said about our Lord Jesus Christ in Whom we are trusting in?
I Peter 2:23, Philippians 2:8

4. David was a man who waited and Saul did not wait. What do you see in the following scenes from their lives?
I Samuel 26:6-10, 13:1, 5-14

5. A. Psalm 25 is an acrostic of the alphabet. David had to work at this writing this psalm. Praise need not be spontaneous. Psalm 25 is prayer interspersed with answers or God's perspective and truth. Read the Psalm again with this in mind and point out the prayer and the answers or God's perspective and truth.

B. Where do we turn when we do not know where to turn?
Psalm 25:4-5, II Chronicles 20:12, Psalm 25:11, 18, I John 1:9, Psalm 25:6, 15-22, Psalm 145:17-21

C. What can you count on, day by day and moment by moment?
Psalm 22:5, Romans 10:11
